Transportation / Bus

Student Name: _____

The Coeur d'Alene Tribal School provides bus transportation on regular school days for our students. Having a ride to and from school is a privilege and not a right. If your child does not follow the bus rules they may have consequences, which could include loss of bus privileges for a day, multiple days, weeks, or a month.

1. Do not reach out any open window - keep all body parts inside the bus at all times
2. No bullying
3. No throwing items in the bus or out of the bus
4. Listen to the bus driver
5. No eating / drinking / chewing gum on the bus
6. Stay in your seat until you have reached your stop

The bus drivers have the authority to suspend a student from the bus. If they do so, they will inform the parent/ guardian in person or over the phone immediately and communicate that information to Tribal School Administration as well. A meeting between Parent/ Bus Driver/ Administration may need to take place before the student regains bus privileges.
